grammaticality

A friend claims that the phrase for free is incorrect. Should we only say at no cost instead?

orthography

My company gives out free promotional items with the company name on it. Is this stuff called company swag or schwag? It seems that both come up as common usages-Google searching indicates that the

What is it called when you "buy" something for free?

For example, imagine some food company decides to make their fruits permanently free. Online, you can "order" them (for free), but in person, what do you do? What would be the

What is the opposite of "free" as in "free of charge"?

What is the opposite of free as in "free of charge" (when we speak about prices)? We can add not for negation, but I am looking for a single word.

What is the difference between 'Is it free' and 'Is it on the house?'

8 "Free" and "on the house" both mean that you don't have to pay, but the inferred meaning is slightly different. If something is "free" it is without charge. For example, you might

For free vs. free of charges

I don't think there's any difference in meaning, although "free of charges" is much less common than "free of charge". Regarding your second question about context: given that English

single word requests

Similarly, "free education" is funded by the state (which is ultimately financed by taxpayers) and taught in state-run schools called state schools whereas schools that charge tuition

Why does "free" have 2 meanings? (Gratis and Libre)

1 ' Free ' absolutely means 'free from any sorts constraints or controls. The context determines its different denotations, if any, as in 'free press', 'free speech', 'free stuff' etc.

What is the difference between "free rider" and "free loader"?

Free ride dates back to 1880, while free loader is a more recent construction "freeloader (n.) also free-loader, by 1939, from free (adj.) + agent noun from load (v.)As a verb, freeload is
